

Leadership Capability Model & Standards

The methodology deployed involves the construction of the leadership models standards along with the socialization of them to enable acceptance and change management. The involvement of senior managers in this process will also generate the culture of role modelling and leaders as teachers in developing the leaders in the pipeline.

